

Alexis Washburn

Regional Director, Northeast

Alexis Washburn is the Regional Director in the Northeast office. She has been active in the clean energy industry in Boston for 5 years starting in community solar and most recently working on climate policy. Prior to joining Emerald Cities Collaborative, Alexis worked at the Massachusetts Department of Energy Resources (DOER) where she led DOER's equity and environmental justice work. Alexis graduated from Boston University with a B.A. in Environmental Science and from Tufts University with an M.A. in Urban and Environmental Policy and Planning. In her free time she likes to travel and explore new places including finding the best donut shop in every city she visits.
